

Alina Chhantel

Currently a fellow at The Open Institute for Social Science. Working as coordinator for The Kumari Safehouse Project and illustrator for Meera Publication. Student of social science and part of Rotaract District of 3292.

Dhapakhel, Lalitpur
Kathmandu, Nepal
9808751907
alinachhantel@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

The Kumari Safehouse Project, Budhanilkantha— Coordinator

April 2019 - PRESENT

Meera Publication, Budhanilkantha — Illustrator

November 2018 - PRESENT

BODY & DATA, Bhaktapur — Field Researcher

December 2018 - January 2019

DCA, Jamshikhel — Volunteer

September 2018 - October 2018

Otaku Next, Lazimpat — Assitant content creator, Social media manager & personal relation

August 2015 - February 2016

EDUCATION

Tribhuvan University, Kritipur — Master's in Sociology

2017- PRESENT

Successfully completed Academic Courses.

Tri-Chandra Multiple Camps, Gantaghar — Post-Graduate Diploma in Counselling Psychology

2015-2016

St.Xavier's College, Maitighar — Bachelor's in Social Work

2011-2014

PUBLICATION

- Book Review published in SAMAJ ADDYAN JOURNAL (Vol-13)(2018)
- Illustration published in COLOR NEPAL(2018)

SKILLS

- Good communication
- Teamwork and Adaptability
- Enthusiastic Learner
- Research
- SPSS
- Drawing and Illustration

CERTIFICATES

Foundations-level Data Analyst (2019) by The Open Institute for social science

Women of the World (WOW)Volunteer of 2018: Organized by British Council and South Bank

Micro Galleries Volunteer Program (2018)

Judge's Choice in ART25: LIVE PAINTING COMPETITION (2018)

Best Strategies at Human Right Council in Rotaract Model United (2017)

Rotaract Youth Leadership Camp (2018)

LANGUAGES

Nepali and English

